WOODMANSEY CE
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Friday 23rd June 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

It is with pleasure that I am now able to send to you our final inspection report.

You will remember that we were visited by two HMI Ofsted inspectors on the 11th May 2023, and their inspection took into account every aspect of our school, from safeguarding requirements, to our SEND provision, our curriculum and extra-curricular offer, and of course they wanted to know what our wonderful children and their supportive families thought too.

I will warn you though, under the new inspection framework the published reports are brief in comparison to our last inspection. For what was such a thorough and rigorous day, it can feel a little disappointing to see your school being described in such few words, as I am sure I must have spoken hundreds of thousands of them on the day alone! But that being said, the inspectors could see how cared for the children are at Woodmansey, they were so quick to tell the inspectors all about our school family and I just could not be prouder. During our feedback on the day, the two inspectors spoke highly of our ambitious curriculum and how well the staff knew the children in our care and understood our intention of providing memorable experiences for our children.

Thank you to you all too. You send us the most wonderful of children to work with every day, they really do make our days memorable, and each day is a joy working with them.

Lastly, I want to thank my staff. When I think of my life at Woodmansey, I know how fortunate I am to work amongst such positive, caring people who always want to go above and beyond the call of duty. The Ofsted process is an added pressure, but they sprang into action and they each ensured they were all supported at every step. Thank you – we are a family. The staff team is also extended to our family at Molescroft who throughout the year have stood side by side with staff here, sharing expertise and care. I cannot thank them enough for all they do to support the staff here. This report is a reflection of our journey with our Molescroft colleagues too.

So, I hope you can see our school amongst the words written in the report, but should you have questions, of course please just get in touch.

Very best wishes,

Mrs. B Nicholls
Head of School
